

Usage/Guide

Login and Signup:

Access: As the visit there are options for 'Login' and 'Signup'.

Login Process:

Click on 'Login' to open the login form.

Enter your username and password.

Click the 'Login' button to access your profile and the main content.

Signup Process:

Click on 'Signup' to open the signup form.

Fill in the required fields: Username, Password, Email, Phone Number, and Full Name.

Click the 'Signup' button to create your account.

Homepage:

User Profile:

Upon successful login, your user profile is displayed, greeting you by username.

Navigation: The homepage features a navigation bar with links to different sections: Home, Leasing, Buying, Details, and Calculator.

Content Display: Clicking on each link displays relevant information or tools in the main content area.

Information Sections:

- Home: Provides an introduction to the application and its purpose.
- Leasing: Offers detailed information about car leasing, its benefits, and considerations.
- Buying: Explains the aspects of buying a car, including long-term ownership and costs.
- Details: Gives more in-depth information about both leasing and buying options.
- Dealearship : Where it give the access links to the dealer sites .
- Feedback: Here a user can give feedback which helps us improving things.

Calculator:

Access: Located in the navigation bar under 'Calculator'.

Usage:

Enter values in the provided fields: Car Price, Down Payment, Interest Rate, Loan Term, Lease Term, Tax Rate, and Insurance Cost.

Click 'Calculate' to see a comparison of total costs between leasing and buying.

Results: The application displays a chart comparing the total costs of leasing vs buying based on your input.